Across the Quantum Edge

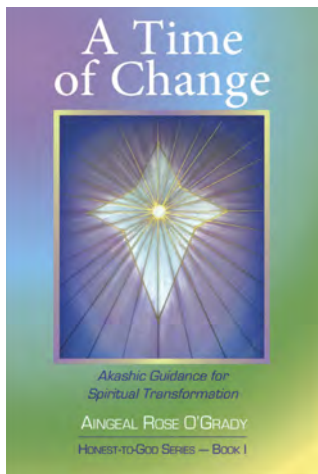

DOCUMENTING THE UNEXPECTED

HOME OF GRANITE PUBLISHING, AND ITS IMPRINTS...

Swan-Raven & Co.'s long-term mission has been to gather up lost wisdom and healing practices from indigenous cultures that once were part of our collective understanding of how to thrive in balance with Nature. As our authors guide us by presenting these forgotten teachings, they enable us to peer across the Quantum Edge, as our ancestors did, to harness and focus the creative energies of the universe to build a better world. Human survival on Planet Earth requires that we listen to this wisdom and relearn how to interact with Mother Earth.

Wild Flower Press has long been at the forefront of documenting the unexpected by publishing astonishing stories of ordinary people's extraordinary experiences. By exploring the reality of the extraterrestrial and multidimensional beings that share this Universe with us, our authors expand our minds and help prepare us to realize our destiny as cosmic citizens. These pioneers, who cross over the Quantum Edge, help us all build a new paradigm for a sustainable world of harmony and spiritual strength that we can pass on to future generations.

So, We're Still Here, Now What?

Spiritual Evolution and Personal Empowerment in a New Era
Book I of The Map Home Series

Gwilda Wiyaka

For eons, people periodically prepared for the "end times," and 12-21-12 was no exception, but "we're still here." So, were the prophecies wrong? No way. Gwilda Wiyaka reveals the tremendous influences that are occurring and will affect us for the foreseeable future. She covers diverse topics like astrology, astronomy, physics, anatomy, and the Mayan calendar and then shows us how their interrelationship with shamanism and us affects our evolution. So, We're Still Here, Now What? reminds us of what we need to do to reconnect to the Natural Laws. As a shamanic practitioner for over 30 years, Gwilda introduces ancient techniques of shamanism as reliable methods that manage matter at the quantum-mechanical level. In down-to-earth, scientifically based concepts, she shows how the application of these practices helps us step out of the current exploitative system and into personal empowerment. Included are easy-to-follow instructions on entering a shamanic trance and its application in daily life, which takes you back to who you truly are.

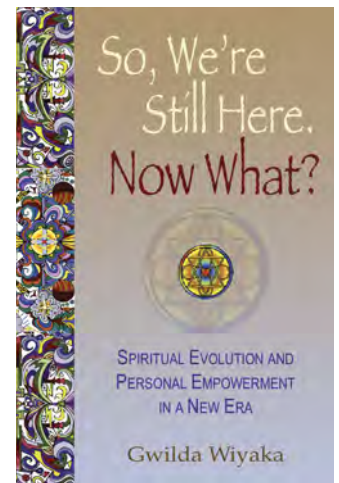

"...an enlightened view into the spiritual realm with a clear cosmic perspective. I have worked with Gwilda for over 20 years, and she provides an invaluable experience for every medical student I teach. Her new book provides a pathway to discovering the wheels within wheels that influence our lives."

—Elmo Frickman, M.D., University of Colorado, Denver School of Medicine

"Read this book and learn how to free yourself from societal programming and discover your true nature!"

—Y.L. Wright, M.A., and Joe Swartz, M.D.

Authors of the Bioidentical Hormones book series

Wiyaka is the founder of the Colo. state-certified Path Home Shamanic Arts School. As a preceptor for the UOC School of Medicine, she teaches medical students the modern interface between shamanism and allopathic medicine.

Common Sense in Uncommon Times: Survival in a Changing World

Brian L. Crissey, Ph.D., and Pamela Meyer Crissey, C.H.

HOW TO BE PREPARED WHEN “WEIRD IS THE NEW NORMAL!”

A myriad of unforeseen events—floods, droughts, storms, fires, earthquakes, accidents, tornadoes, and terrorism—can change your world in an instant. Most people are unprepared for the unexpected—but you don't have to be one of them.

By following the organized suggestions in Common Sense in Uncommon Times, you can prepare yourself and your family for unpredictable, but inevitable, disruptions, whatever their source, with a few simple and inexpensive preparations. Learn to react pro-actively at home, or in the world, with or without a vehicle. Learn to save lives with orderly preparation now for any unexpected events that may disrupt your life.

Surviving any short-term crisis is the first goal. Long-term threats to our survival are more subtle. This second edition also looks at long-term survival issues by exploring the assumptions we make about health, food, water, the economy, and a viable natural order to sustain us. Major changes—far beyond what most of us suspect—are shifting the ground under our feet. Are you prepared to shift also? Understanding the issues is the first key to solving them.

“I think people should have this as their own personal reference book and have it available where they can use it. It should be dog-eared—that’s how much they should use it.”

—Dr. Robert Phillips, Center for Coping

“The issues you write about affect everyone. Common Sense in Uncommon Times is very timely and operative for our times.”

—C.R. Power, KTRC, Santa Fe, NM

Mission: Mother Earth: Peace Through Geobiology

Richard Benishai

An amazing account of the events preceding and following a three-year period in the life of Richard Benishai, an electronics engineer, turned geobiologist. It is the story of how this technical, Cartesian and unsuspecting individual was guided into a life of research, mystics, energies and the invisible world of geobiology—the use of dowsing to detect, measure, and correct Earth energies.

The story begins with a meeting between Richard and Geema, which was pre-programmed by the “Family.” The two began a friendship that has continued to the present day. Working as a team and together with the “Family,” they have pursued the research, detection and activation of 18 high-energy sites in Israel and many others around the world. Some of the sites were known and renowned as ancient, religious locations, while others were previously unknown. Once energized, the network of re-energized ley lines and powerful vortices built momentum, increased its energy gradually, and now has reached such a level as to influence neighboring countries towards sustainable peace and well being. Richard has expanded this work to many places throughout the world.

I Used to Be Normal, Then I Got Bored

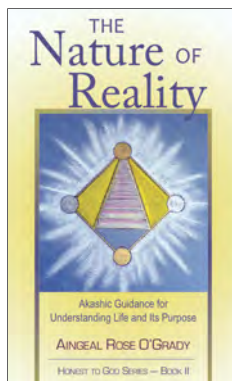

Trusting There is More...

by Arael

This book is one woman's journey from a place of total insecurity and lack of self-worth into a strong, spiritual woman who travels in faith, knowing that each step is Divine. Not only is it her story, but it is also a guidebook and an inspiration for others who may be suffering. It is also for those who seek to break out of lives that no longer serve them, but who still fear to take the leap. Arael exemplifies how following your dreams and inner guidance can manifest a very fulfilling life. A quote she often uses is, "When you come to the edge of all you know, you are given one of two things—land to stand on, or wings to fly." This book gives you wings on which to soar.

Many are unaware of the 10,000 exquisitely beautiful designs, or crop circles, that have appeared in our fields for centuries. There is an undeniable intelligence behind them—many incorporate sacred geometry and higher mathematics, and each one encodes an essential message or healing tool. Since 2001, we have captured and preserved in pure water powerful cosmic energies from more than a hundred of the purest-energy agriglyphs. By accurately reading their signatures in the Akashic Records, we have decoded their purposes, and we now offer the best ones to you in one-ounce bottles. When you need protection, extraordinary healing, or a spiritual evolution boost, let your heart draw you into a world Not Made By Hands, where what you need may be awaiting you. Essence 0101, "Global Healing Mandala," is in use in 19 nations that are coordinating to manifest a better world. It is derived from the Milk Hill formation of 07.12.01, and it focuses intentions into manifest reality, as a magnifying glass focuses sunlight.

1103 "Star Seed" showed the melatonin molecule. Why? RF Cell phone signals cause the pineal gland to suppress melatonin, which lets free radicals build up, causing disease. 1303 "The Water Bearer" transmutes RF into harmless frequencies.

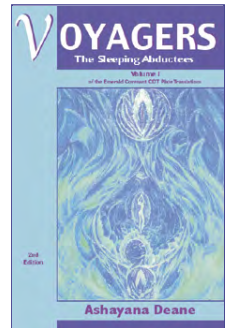

0405 "Honoring Nature" was a wake-up call: Care for the honeybees. They produce 1/3 of our food but are in serious decline from fungi, RNA viruses, Bt-poisoned GMO pollen, and RF. 1306 "Home Finder" helps worker bees find their way home again.

The Allagash Abductions

Undeniable Evidence of Alien Intervention

Raymond E. Fowler

Introduction by Budd Hopkins

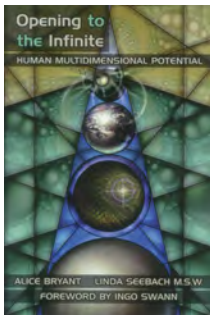

The classic documentary about four men and their "abduction" experience in the Allagash Wilderness in 1976. Fowler does a careful job in corroborating each abductee's experience independently of the others. The third edition includes a new preface that covers the results of the men's lie-detector tests.

"There are aspects of this case that raise it above the level of the 'usual' abduction tale...the witnesses are sincere, credible people. Nothing has surfaced to indicate in any way that their tale is an artful fabrication." —UFO Magazine

Reconciliation

A study restoring Man's faith in himself and his place in the scheme of things.

the late Ida Kamenberg

Was the Big Bang intentional? • Is humanity an event or a process? If a process, what are we processing? • Why has no "missing link" been discovered? Why have we allowed our minds to be enslaved? • How can we raise our level of consciousness? • Does God have a shadow side? • Are we living on the inside or the outside of the Universe?
